

Fro Sinclair to air an anti-Kerry document just a few days before an election is certainly not in the public interest. This is what happens when the control of our media is in a few hands. The public deserves better. We want actual news, news, news! Not partisan propaganda. Actual and un-biased news is essential to a democracy.